FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

We had a full weekend surrounding our visit from Jeff Walling and his series on "Faith for the Future." As most of you know, his original Saturday flight was canceled at the last minute. I appreciate Jeff volunteering to record that evening's lesson on video, and I thank Denise Cameron for all of her work in putting it together. Our

Saturday night began with a good number of folks packaging seeds to be sent to Tanzania through Healing Hands International. I am thankful that we could bless those people in that way. At 5:30, we enjoyed a delicious meal catered by Smoked Goodies. It was a time of good food and good fellowship. Jeff's two lessons on Sunday morning gave us much to think about, and that evening, he shared another lesson with a youth gathering at Mark and Clair Muiznieks' house. The weather was perfect, and we had a great turnout. Thanks to everyone who helped to make the weekend a success. You can see some photos from the weekend below.

The very next day, it was my privilege to baptize Kaylee Colson into Christ. We had talked earlier, and I knew it was something she had been thinking about. She is a friend of Rachel Moon, and we welcome her into this church family. You can scroll down for Kaylee's contact information.

We are now less than four weeks away from our Vacation Bible School. This year's theme is "Out of Egypt," and pyramids are already being constructed. Be in prayer for those four special days.
