FROM GEOFFREY'S DESK . . .

The time is all but here. Our 2024 Vacation Bible School kicks off this coming Sunday evening, and let me tell you that if I were to say that the gym has been “transformed,” that would be a massive understatement. This coming Sunday, our worship assembly will take place in the land of Egypt, complete with pyramids, the Nile River, and more. I am looking forward to the week as we go “Out of Egypt.” We will be looking at Moses and Jesus during our time, and I know that the boys and girls will have a great week. Things kick off this coming

Sunday night at 6:30 with an opening presentation, and following that, we will enjoy ice cream and cookies. Daily sessions are Monday through Wednesday, July 1-3, from 9:00 to noon, and classes are offered for ages 3 through the 5th grade. We will bring things to a close on Wednesday night. Following a wrap-up session at 6:30, we will enjoy hamburgers and hot dogs at a cookout, and that will be followed by fireworks at dusk. There is still time to invite friends and neighbors. I know it is going to be a great week.

In conjunction with our VBS, we have been building a “food pyramid” for our friends at The Well. Our goal is 1000 items, and thanks to you, we have already surpassed the 800 mark. Let’s see if we can hit that 1000 number this Sunday. I know we can if we work together.

Finally, such an impressive setup means that a lot of help is going to be needed to help tear down. See if you can work that into your calendar. B. J. Worthington and his crew would greatly appreciate it. Let him or the office know if you can help.
